MILITANTS IN COURT TO FIGHT NEW SUIT

Shopkeepers Demand $7,000 Damages for Property Destroyed.

LONDON, June 16.-Hundreds of milltants as well as anti-suffragists flocked to the King's Bench Division to-day to suit brought to determine whether the suffragette leaders may be held respon-sible for the material damage of mili-

West End merchants whose shop winthe plaintiffs, and as in the case two weeks ago Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst. Miss Christabel Pankhurst and the with a form of insanity they Pethick Lawrences are the defendants. The shopkeepers want $7,000 damages. In the other trial the plaintiffs ob-tained judgment for $1,000.

FALSE ALARM SENT IN.

ome One Wanted to See New Automobile Engine Run.

When the new automobile fire engine of Engine Company No. 21 thundered around the corner into Broadway a few minutes after noon to-day and down to the building at No. 361-63, at the Franklin street corner, the whole street pussed and choked with people eager to see the new fire fighting machine. But Battalion Chief Crowley could find no fire in the offices of Munn & Co., publishers of the Scientific American. whence the automatic alarm of fire had issued.

No one in the office would admit having turned in the alarm and the wires seemed in perfect order. The battalion thief had his suspictions, however, that somebody knew that the new fire engine only answered automatic alarms and set off the automatic signal in the
